

DICK WESTBAY

Famed Prep Coach Led Wasson High School To 1971 3A State Football Title

Inducted October 29, 2013

Colorado Springs native, Dick Westbay, was the head football coach at Wasson High School from 1966-1978 and led his 1971 team to the state 3A high school football championship, the first in Wasson history. His other teams finished second once and reached the state quarterfinals five times.

Westbay was a part of the Wasson family from the beginning in 1959, when he was an assistant coach in football, basketball and baseball as well as a social science teacher. He later served as the school's athletic director.

Westbay attended Colorado Springs High School where he was a three-sport athlete and played alongside his brother, Bill, on the school's 1948 state football championship team.

He played college football at the University of Denver, coached in Bakersfield, California, then returned to Colorado Springs and began his coaching legacy.
