University of Colorado Basketball

Inducted October 27, 2010

King was a prep basketball star at Rampart High winning All-State honors in 1986 and 1987 and Parade All-America laurels as a senior. She was also an All-State volleyball selection and set school records in the high jump for the track team along with her basketball accomplishments. She enrolled at the University of Colorado after a long recruiting battle for her services and became a four-year letter winner for Ceal Barry's Buffs. She co-captained the 1992-93 Buffs team that finished 27-4 and went to the NCAA Elite Eight. King was a four-time Academic All-Big Eight selection, graduating in 1993 with a double major in psychology and sociology. She was named Colorado's 1993 NCAA Woman of the Year following her graduation. She worked at CU from 1994-2001 as a tutor and Academic Coordinator for student-athletes before accepting a post at Texas A&M as an Academic Supervisor in the athletic department in 2001. She was the Assistant Athletic Director for Academics from 2003-2008 and later the Associate Director for General Academic Programs at Texas A&M.
